Figure skating is no doubt one of the most expressive sports. Who doesn't just adore the stories and the characters portrayed on ice?

There will be several different forms of skating: singles, couples, team competitions, ice dancing, artistic and creative events. Each event is judged on a selection of different criteria such as artistic impression, choreography, originality, interpretation and technical merit. The outcome is as exciting and moving for the skaters as it is for the spectators. Individual and couples will compete by age group and skill level.

The figure skating tournaments will be performed according to the rules of the Ice Skating Institute (ISI) and the International Gay Figure Skating Union (IGFSU).
